

HITCHED UP FOR A GAME

All-Americans and Maroons in Double Harness for Sunday Game; Boys Back Play With Respectable Side Bet

The All-Americans and the Maroons will entertain the fans of Phoenix Sunday afternoon at a little baseball party at the Polk street "fashed" ball grounds.

So announced young Mr. Nellis after chasing Billy Quiros up a tree with a club made of rolled up green backs. In view of the fact that money makes the mare go, Nellis has been using that commodity to make good baseball dates. And he finds the method uniformly successful, as do all other enterprisers who use such tools. Outside teams there are six for that Sunday game. Mesa is all broken up and Tempe can't put one full team in the field. Chandler also can't put one full team in the field, for, as many sports will recollect, there was an emptiness, vott iss, where once the proud warriors of the townsite posed in graceful attitudes.

So the date was given to the more or less unwilling Maroons. They shied at first, but that bundle of hay in the mitt of Cecil Nellis coaxed them into the shafts.

Watson, the Kansas Kid, will pass the pils. His comrade back of the pan will be one of several or maybe more. Rulrow and Williams are the catching candidates. The Mexicans will probably pitch Smiley to Castle.

Wednesday is moving day with the All Ams. On that date they are scheduled to leave for Globe, Miami, Tucson and other foreign lands—if the Lord is willing and the creek don't rise. Which latter is figurative for the uncertainty of baseball providence. Might be there will come up something like what halted the former Tucson trip, but if it sticks its head in the Ams will bounce a bat off'n it, says the team. That bang-buggy ride through fields of plenty, deserts in bloom and mighty mountains, is too bueno an outing to be missed lightly.

They are laughing yet, in Houston, over a story told by William Green, an enthusiastic hunter—even for a Texan. Bill was striding over Big Thicket one day with his Remington repeater over his shoulder, every now and then adding to his bag. Coming over the clump of a hill he met a fellow huntsman picking an old single shot rifle. "What yo, all huntin'?" queried Bill. "Might pot a deer," answered the other, laconically. "Seen any?" said Bill. "Only three, so far," returned the stranger. "Get a shot," persisted the Houstonite.

"Yes, they was two got pretty high—but I ain't got but one load for my gun and I want-a hunt all day," was the startling exclamation that still amuses Bill and his friends.

WILL USE TRAPS FOR FLIES
Los Angeles Has an Improvement Over the Old "Swatting" Plan.

Instead of "Swat the Fly" hereafter in Los Angeles it will be "Get the Trap."

The Los Angeles health department has ordered twenty-five fly traps and will use them in its crusade against the fly. This will be the first time this method of doing away with flies has ever been used in Los Angeles and, according to Dr. L. M. Powers, city health commissioner, who has seen a successful demonstration of the new trap, it is expected to outdo the crude method of endeavoring to exterminate the fly with a "swatter."—Los Angeles Examiner.

APPRECIATION OF ASSISTANCE

Thanks Extended by Teachers to Those Who Took Part in Institute.

At the conclusion of the teachers' institute, Professor Jantzen of the Osborn school on Thursday offered the following motion which was unanimously adopted:

"I move that we the teachers of Maricopa county extend a rising vote of thanks to Dr. Kirk and Miss Long-necker for their able and most helpful lectures; to the board of trustees of the Phoenix union high school for the use of their excellent auditorium and to each of the following who so kindly assisted during the institute, viz:

"Rev. C. A. Hyatt who offered the invocation and to the following musicians, Mrs. L. D. Dameron accompanied by Miss Irene Johnson; Miss Howard, piano solo; Professor L. J. Johnson; Miss Anna Luke, accompanied by Miss Oma Eichen, by courtesy of the Arizona School of Music; Miss Dorothy White, reader, and Superintendent C. O. Case, for an address."

LEARN HOW TO GIVE
Never mind! If you've got much money, you ain't got much sense—I mean of that particular kind. If I was you I wouldn't try givin' away dollars until I'd earned all there is to know about givin' away cents.

Nobody ought to. That's the reason so many folks makes failures of their philanthropy. They begin late, an' sudden, an' they want to begin big.

Ye can't. Now you start wid a piny, dear. 'Tis enough responsibility for you at present. People that made a piny's more approachable—ye can fin' out more about them. Then mebbe ye kin see where ye can spend a dollar.—Peggy's Philosophy in "The Penny Philanthropist," by Clara E. Loughlin.

Bue and Buff Dress for the Autumn Girl

Here is a coquettish gown for the autumn girl. It is of blue cloth combined with buff. The collar and cuffs are supplemented by bands of the macramé lace. The lines of the coat are very gracefully adjusted, the fastening being at the side, where it is caught by two big buttons.

The Big Fire Sale At the Peoples Store

Northeast Corner Second and Washington Streets

goes merrily on. It features values in seasonable merchandise that must be pronounced by every person, no matter how poor a judge, as the greatest ever offered in the southwest. Today will be another big day---perhaps the best day yet, as lots of bargains, that we did not have the room to display thus far, will be found on the bargain tables, at prices that emphasize our determination to close this sale in a hurry. Besides there will be something like $2000 worth of goods, mostly sound, that were on the road at the time of the fire. They just arrived. All these go at Fire Sale Prices just the same as the rest. MARRIED IN WESTMINSTER

Famous Cathedral Was the Scene of an American Wedding.

Westminster Cathedral was the scene of an interesting American wedding, when Fletcher Warren Murdock, a mining engineer of Los Angeles, and Miss Edith Paes de Barros, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Paes de Barros of Sao Paulo, were married by Father Daly, secretary to the bishop of Westminster.

Mr. De Barros is a retired coffee planter and has been making a tour of the world with his wife, son and two daughters and had reached London on his way home when he received a message that Mr. Murdock was on his way to marry his fiancée.

Mr. De Barros, not knowing how to make the arrangements here, went to the American embassy, where all was satisfactorily arranged. Only the relatives of the bride and the Brazilian consul were present. After a continental tour, Mr. and Mrs. Murdock will leave for Brazil in November.—New York Herald.

ACTING MANAGER OF THE NAPS AND MAN WHO MAY HAVE CHARGE OF TEAM IN 1913

CLEVELAND, Sept. 13.—Outfielder Birmingham is acting as manager of the Naps since the resignation of Harry Davis, but it is believed that this arrangement is only for the remainder of the current season. Gossip in baseball circles is that Topsy Hartsel, manager of the Toledo, is to be the manager in 1913. Toledo is known as the farm for the Cleveland club.

Public School Music Course

Primary Training Department for Children 5 to 12 Years of Age

The children are classified and in the commencement of the course lessons are given four and five times a week, nearly all work being done in the studio under the supervision of the teacher.

Kindergarten music building is pronounced by leading musicians and educators the rational way of beginning the study of music.

Students entering the school with previous preparation are placed immediately according to their individual standing. Any review work which may be necessary is conducted in such a way as to offer no interference with their progress.
